Imagination Picture Book Series

I Wish They Would All Trip and Fall
Isn’t it okay if there are people I don’t like?
I can think of lots of fun things to do with this "superpower" feeling!
“I can’t help it if I don’t like something. It feels like a heavy downpour of rain. Ugh, there was this one time… grrr!”
What do you do if you are angry and frustrated?
This book offers a remedy straight from the mind of Shinsuke Yoshitake that both kids and grown-ups can empathize with.

What Happens Next?
A light-hearted way of imagining life after death
After Grandpa died, we found a notebook he wrote about what might happen after he dies. Heaven, gods, after death…

Can I Build Another Me?
Think about “What I am” in this second imagination picture book.
Kenta buys a robot to make it do all the things he doesn’t like doing. The robot asks him many questions in order to become the perfect “Kenta.” As he thinks of how to answer the robot’s questions, Kenta starts to wonder what it means to be “Kenta” after all. He learns that, while it’s good to have a clone to do your chores, it’s still hard work thinking about yourself!

Still Stuck
A simple boy gets stuck in his clothes. It’s been a while since that happened,” he thinks. This unique and humorous picture book shows a young boy’s feelings of frustration, but also determination to do things by himself, in a funny take on what life would be like if you get stuck in your clothes, but still kept on going…

Knead & Stretch
A fun (and funny) way for young children to discover the power of touch and “skinship.”
Children and their parents can have fun playing around with the rhythmical words and phrases in this new easy-to-read picture book from Shinsuke Yoshitake. This picture book is designed to stimulate children’s imagination as they think about what it feels like to knead, stretch, pummel, pinch, poke, tickle, and more, at an age when they are developing fine motor coordination. Perfect for reading at bedtime!

My Journey

For the owner of this little hotel, every day is the same. Guests come from around the world, telling stories of faraway places and sending him postcards once they return home. The owner longs to make his own journey, meeting friends and exploring new places along the way. Will he ever be able to leave his little hotel? In beautiful lithographs that printed by the author herself, Akiko Miyakoshi’s latest picture book explores longing and discovering the courage to travel into the unknown.

Piano Recital

A story of dealing with stage fright and discovering courage in unexpected places.

Today is Momo’s first piano recital. She is very nervous as she waits backstage for her turn to perform. But when a little mouse invites her to see her own piano recital, Momo finds there’s no need to worry.

Hina & the Lost Kitten

New from Komako Sakai!

A story about taking in a small creature.

A tiny kitten turns up on Hina’s doorstep one day. “It’s a real living thing, isn’t it?” she says to her mother. This beautifully illustrated and eagerly anticipated new picture book from Komako Sakai explores a young child’s feelings of attachment—and also her worries about loss and separation—as she learns to care for her new pet.

The Birthday Cake

Tetsuzo

Ai is taken away to Cake Castle, where she eats lots of cakes and tarts. She could stay here forever, but she has to find one more candle for her birthday cake because today is her 5th birthday.

Tetsuzo is my cat. In the spring, he chases flower petals, and in the summer, he sleeps in the sink. But on my eighth winter with Tetsuzo, he starts to grow smaller and smaller…

A delicious adventure in the world of sweets

Winner of the Biennial of Illustration Bratislava (BIB) Golden Apple Award

Born in 1966, Komako Sakai made her debut as a picture book illustrator in 1998 after graduating from University of the Arts. Her magnifi- cence paintings have been highly acclaimed internationally.

Peace and War
A picture book with simple, clear illustrations to help children think about peace.
What is the difference between “Me at peace” and “Me at war”? Each spread presents a side-by-side comparison of the same people, things, and places shows the stark differences—and surprising similarities—between times of peace and war. The black and white illustrations highlight in a clear and simple way how things look completely different when war comes—and remind us that we remain human in spite of our differences.

Noritake
Born in Hyogo in 1978. Focusing on monochrome drawings, he creates works for advertisements, books, product merchandise, and more, and is also active as designer and director.

Shuntaro Tanikawa
Born in Tokyo in 1931. He published his first poem Two Billion Light-Years of Solitude at age 21. Since then he has won many awards and become one of Japan’s most active prominent poets.

By comparing two sides, we can see more clearly.

Peace is Wonderful
A message of peace from Okinawa
What would a peaceful world look like? Cats smiling, yummies full of food, everyone living together happily... This poem, written by a 6-year-old child from Okinawa, Japan, offers readers hope for a more peaceful world. Beautiful illustrations by Yoshifumi Hasegawa bring a child’s vision of peace to life.

Yoshifumi Hasegawa
Born in Osaka in 1961. He has published over 120 picture books. With his distinctive brushstrokes and humorous style, he is known for presenting important social issues in a thoughtful way.

The Apple & The Kendama
Discover the surprising connections between something as ordinary as an apple and a child’s toy
The apple and the kendama go well together. You might be wondering why, but there are very good reasons. Expand your world and discover a new way of seeing things by exploring the extraordinary relationship between an apple and a kendama, a traditional Japanese wooden toy. This is the long-awaited picture book from the popular illustrator Yasuhiro Suzuki.

Yasuhiro Suzuki
Born in Shizuoka in 1979, Yasuhiro Suzuki began his career working in digital design at a University of Tokyo research lab. His award-winning design works show the playful heart inside everyday things.

The Bear and the Boy
A classic Ainu tale about the magnificence of life.
Among the Ainu, Japan’s indigenous people, bears are revered as gods. In this story, a bear cub and an Ainu boy are nursed by the boy’s mother, just like real brothers. When the bear cub is big enough, he will be sacrificed to the gods in the Iyomante ceremony, his spirit sent up to the heavens. But on the night before the ceremony, the bear cub disappears... Their extraordinary story continues in this splendidly illustrated picture book of the classic Ainu tale.

Hiroshi Abe
Born in Hokkaido in 1948, Hiroshi Abe worked at the Akahikawa Zoo for 25 years before becoming a picture book author. From his time as a zookeeper, he gained deep familiarity with the animals, and looking at the truth about the animal’s everyday lives became the origins of his picture books.
